Accordingly, after long waiting, and after much counsel and prayer, the proposal to establish a Theological Seminary in the Presbyterian Church, was first introduced into the General Assembly, during the sessions of that body in May, 1809. It was so far countenanced, that an overture on the subject was end down to all the Presbyteries for their consideration and judgment. The opinions of the Presbyteries were so far received by the General Assembly which sat the next year, that the following Resolution, after mature deliberation, was adopted by a nearly unanimous vote, viz. - Resolved, That the General Assembly will, in the name of the Great Head of the Church, immediately attempt to establish a Seminary for securing to Candidates for the Ministry more extensive and efficient Theological Instruction, than they have heretofore enjoyed. This measure was followed by the appointment of a large Committee, to draft a Constitution for the proposed Seminary; who, at the meeting of the next Assembly, May, 1811,...
