Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Monte Historical Society: The present might at first seem peculiarly unseasonable for an occasion like this, but a recurrence to the history of oar political institutions, is ever worthy of wise and prudent men. and never before have such investigations been so forced upon our attention as now, when the nation is struggling for its very life, and every man seeks for the cause and cure of our national calamity. The occasion, and the sentiment to which I have the honor to respond, naturally lead to inquiry into the political views and designs of Sir Ferdinando Gorges and his associates, as developed...
