The Knife of Sorrow

By Bill Farrell

Trafford Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 94 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.8in. x 0.3in. Launched into life like an iceberg, this ADD affected person navigates life on a sea of addictions until hitting the rocks of reality and melting. The melt down has as its consequences the dissolution of marriages, family, bank accounts, social standing and a whole lot more. Floating through life, leaving a debris field of broken marital relationships, shattered reputation, bewildered friends and acquaintances, and a few amused onlookers, Bill Farrell carried a lot of flotsam and jetsam to his meltdown point where it was released in a tide pool to serve as reminders of his life journey. Panning through this glacial tilth, Bill finds healing and life giving nuggets of life's truths which he uses in sharing his strength, hope and experience with others. It is hoped that by identifying some of ADD/ADHD life traits this book reveals areas that others may resonate with and thereby get help for themselves before getting to the end of the line. No professional claims are intended or implied. . . this is MY story. A bold statement here where I say, I believe this will become a bestseller! You...
