Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Uriah Smith (1832-1903) was a Seventh-day Adventist author and editor who worked for the Review and Herald for 50 years. In 1853, he began working at the offices of the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, becoming its editor in 1855. His main contribution to Adventist theology was a commentary on the prophetic Biblical books of Daniel and the Revelation, but he also wrote extensively on conditional immortality and other topics. Smith held several other offices in the Adventist Church, including treasurer of the General Conference. He advocated religious liberty, the abolition of slavery, and noncombatancy for Adventists. His works include: The Warning Voice of Time and Prophecy (1853), The Bible Student's Assistant; or, A Compend of Scripture References (1858), Mortal or Immortal? Which?; or, An Inquiry into the Present Constitution and Future Condition of Man (1860), The Two Covenants (1860s), An Appeal to the Youth: Funeral Address of Henry N. White (1868), Poems (with Rebekah Smith and Annie R. Smith) (1871), The State of the Dead and the Destiny of the Wicked (1873) and The Biblical...
