Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Whether scribbled on offering envelopes or penciled on the backs of church attendance sheets, her words were filled with inspiration and warmth-addressing topics of love, life, worship, and praise. But Jeanne Weaver Foth never published these personal poems and thoughts during her life, preferring to tuck them away in a small binder among the rest of her belongings. Now the writings, most of which were crafted in fading pencil, have been lovingly transcribed by Jeanne s daughter, Trish, as a tribute to the vivacious, intelligent, and caring woman who loved her church and worked tirelessly to serve her local community. A Wish and You stands on its own for its lyrical turns of phrase, as well as for its profound reflections on many of life s most impactful moments. But it also serves as a permanent memorial that allows readers to feel the presence of this amazing soul-and if you close your eyes, you may even catch a glimpse of Jeanne s joyful smile. Deeply spiritual, candid, and filled with love, this posthumously published poetry collection ensures that Jeanne s unique voice will reach beyond her life on this earth and touch readers for generations to come.
