Should Young Brothers be able to popularize their square crown Horse Show hat throughout the country, the stiff hat manufacturer generally would be greatly benefited thereby. The style undoubtedly meets the demand for something new, and as it is being quite freely shown by both manufacturers and jobbers, there is considerable probability of its being sold generally. As to its being a second Grand Duke hat. that is yet to be demonstrated. Manufacturers to the case trade, especially those manufacturing soft hats, have noted little cessation in the demand for goods; in fact, they are all pretty well crowded with orders and the factories are all running steadily. A feature of the Fall trade of 1902 has been the increased trade in silk and opera hats. It may be that the general prosperity of...
