Not illustrated. 1890 Excerpt: .Under these circumstances, although we might readily agree that the proximity of two other repetitions of the words in the Litany and Gloria may make them not the aptest anthem for use here and may suggest their disuse, as apparently it did to the framers of the Second Book, the Court has not to consider expediency but legality. That use of them could only be condemned on the ground that any and every hymn at this place would be illegal, which cannot be maintained in the face of concurrent, continuous, and sanctioned usage. To condemn the singing of that text here as unsound in doctrine would be contrary to the real force of Ridley s injunction, and to other unexceptionable Protestant teaching. The Court concludes that the singing of it by the choir was not an illegal addition to the service. 7. Lights. Articles 3 and...
