If hes learned anything from his experiences, its that you cant trust anyone but yourself, and relationships are the quickest way to trade a quiet life for one filled with chaos and pain. But despite his misgivings about marital unionsand especially mail-order-brideshe cant deny that hes in need of help on his little Wyoming farm. After a few painstaking months of searching, Richard selects Mia from Virginia to join him out West, planning to make their partnership a mere marriage of convenience. But when the gentle, dark-haired school teacher arrives, Richard starts questioning everything he knows, and soon hes discarding all of the rigid rules that left him without a wife for so long. Out of the ashes of his old life rises a second chance at lovebut will his wounded heart let him grab hold of...
