Williams in the September issue of The Link is great. It is nice to see that at least some professors are aware that there are other books of the Bible than the sixty-six that are taught in the majority of the church schools. However, I take exception to the sentence reading: It is unfortunate that this apocryphal literature has been lost to the Protestant world. The Protestant Episcopal Church of the U.S.A., in addition to the Roman Catholics, has always used the Apocrypha in its teachings and it is often quoted from the pulpit; and I submit that this is a sizable chunk of the world Protestant population. The Link has been my Bible study guide for too many years and I hope it continues its excellent treatment of the religious aspects of the military. - CWO Vincent W. Pilgrim, Sr., (Usa Ret.), P. O.
