Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Federal Security Agency: 1949 The Federal Security Agency was established on July 1, 1939, by Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1939. The objective of the Plan, the President said, was to group together those agencies of the Government whose major purpose was to promote social and economic security, educational opportunity, and the health of the citizens of the Nation. Among the agencies so grouped by that Plan and by Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1939 were the Social Security Board (including the United States Employment Service), the Office of Education, the Public Health Service, and the Federal functions of the American Printing House for the Blind. Reorganization Plan No. 4 of 1940, effective June 30, transferred to the Agency the Food and Drug Administration, Saint Elizabeth Hospital, Freedmen s Hospital, and the Federal functions relating to Howard University and to the Columbia Institution for the Deaf. During the war the Agency became the center around which numerous war activities were developed. In addition to other war functions, the Federal Security Administrator became Chairman of the War Manpower Commission, established in September 1942. When the Commission was abolished at the end of the war, the United States Employment Service, transferred from the Agency to the Commission on its establishment, was then transferred to the Department of Labor. The Agency was further expanded by Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1946. Among other things this plan, effective July 16, abolished the Social Security Board and transferred to the Administrator all the functions of the Board and of its Chairman; transferred to the Agency the Children s Bureau with all its functions except those relating...
