Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from History of Delaware County for the Past Century The undersigned, appointed at the meeting of the Institute in May last to prepare a brief history of Delaware County for the century just now closing, respectfully submits the following report: The appointment was made pursuant to a recommendation of the National and State authorities that such outlines of history be prepared for every City and County in the Union, to be read on the Fourth of July, 1876, and preserved as matter of local history for future reference and use. What is desired is to make a record of the progress of the County materially, morally, and politically during the last century. The task imposed is rendered easy up to 1860 by the elaborate and valuable History of Delaware County, published in that year by the President of the Institute, Dr. George Smith. Indeed, little has been attempted prior to that date except to extract from that work in a condensed form such materials as were supposed to be appropriate to a brief review of the century called for. Tendering thanks to the author for the valuable aid rendered by the work is but feebly expressing the obligations of the people of the County to their historian.
